Discover Cafe Roma's New Kids' Menu

Yummy bites for smaller appetites

Hong Kong, 18 April 2017 – Park Island's favourite beachside restaurant, Cafe Roma, is pleased to present a brand new Kids' Menu packed full of delicious and healthy meal options tailored especially to the taste buds of their youngest patrons. Parents of Hong Kong rejoice as Cafe Roma offers an easy and affordable solution to the needs of mini fussy eaters with brand new, child-sized portioned bites for smaller appetites. Look out for child-friendly versions of classic Cafe Roma signature dishes alongside brand new kids' favourites, all conjured up by a kitchen team led by celebrity chef Jaakko Sorsa. What's more, Cafe Roma's stunning beachside location means children can play out on the Ma Wan Tung Wan Beach whilst waiting for their meal. Additionally, the restaurant boasts an impressive range of games and colouring activities to keep little ones entertained inside, making Cafe Roma the destination of choice for some precious family time.

As a parent himself, Chef Jaakko understands the importance of feeding young children nutritious food whilst also ensuring dishes are both fun and flavourful. Enter the Roasted Chicken, Pumpkin, Tomato, Mozzarella & Couscous Salad (HK$68) appetizer. This colourful starter is loaded with fresh flavours and interesting textures, providing excellent nutrition benefits ideal for ensuring a balanced diet conducive to health. Alternatively, the Green Salad (HK$68), with tomato, cucumber, mixed greens and fine olive oil, is a simpler option suitable for young palates just beginning their epicurean journey; the rustic nature of the dish truly allows the flavours of the fresh vegetables to shine as the stars of the salad. For mains, the Grilled Sea Bass Fillet (HK$68), served atop a creamy Porcini mushroom risotto, nutrient-packed sautéed kale and a punchy bell pepper sauce, is fresh and filling, and a great way to sneak in those all-important omega-3 fatty acids.

Of course, eating out is often an occasion for a special treat, which is why Cafe Roma's Kids' Menu also includes some classic children's favourites. Order the Spaghetti Bolognese (HK$68) topped with Parmesan or the Margherita Pizza 11" (HK$68) to guarantee family hero status in the eyes of kids. For an indulgent end to your feast, how about a family favourite dessert that is sweet enough to please both parent and child? The Banana Split (HK$68) comes complete with Mövenpick chocolate and vanilla ice cream, chocolate sauce, whipped cream, and toasted almond flakes for an extravagant finish.
